Founded 1899

DIRECTOR OF INSTITUTIONAL ADVANCEMENT Brandon University

Brandon University is making a new investment in alumni engagement and fundraising to support the emergent university plan and is poised to initiate a new philanthropic vision for its future. To lead this transformation, the University is seeking an outstanding professional to partner with the President and work closely with University leaders and volunteers in establishing a strategic advancement plan to invigorate Brandon's philanthropic culture. This is an outstanding opportunity for those seeking to use their creativity, initiative and mentoring skills both to advance Brandon University's future support and to build a strong advancement team.

Brandon University is a nationally recognized leader in the delivery of undergraduate and graduate programs in the context of a small and primarily undergraduate institution. Brandon University's small class sizes offer individual attention by faculty and staff on a safe campus which combines the architectural richness of historic buildings with modern style and amenities.

The University is seeking an accomplished fundraising leader with a proven record of achievement in advancement at a senior level. Employing a collegial, ethical, collaborative, and transparent style, the Director will encourage strong internal understanding for and participation in fundraising and alumni engagement activities. The successful candidate will be an articulate and effective communicator who projects a high degree of enthusiasm for Brandon University's strengths and potential.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply, however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Members of designated groups (women, Aboriginal peoples, people with disabilities and visible minorities) are encouraged to apply.
