LEAVE A LEGACY™ Stories and Stats – July 2010

DID YOU KNOW?

According to a FLA Group survey of 2000 Canadian adults, 56% of Canadian adults have wills – and that 7% of those with wills have already made charitable bequests.

In addition, their poll also indicated that making wills – and making gifts in wills – has a definite age correlation. The older the person, the more likely these events have taken place – or will take place soon.
