

Tara Sandler, MFA-P

Tara Sandler joined The Canadian Association of Gift Planners (CAGP) in January 2025, where she leads initiatives focused on education and partnerships. Prior to this role, Tara spent eight years as Director of Education and Strategic Partnerships at the Canadian Council for the Advancement of Education (CCAE).

Throughout her career, Tara has collaborated with professionals across Canada, working to engage members through meaningful connections and the creation of high-quality, relevant educational programs, both in-person and online. She is currently pursuing her Master in Financial Advisory – Philanthropy (MFA-P) designation.

A dedicated volunteer, Tara serves on the Board of the Montreal Children's Library and brings over 15 years of experience in fundraising and volunteer mobilization. She is passionate about the power of human connection, believing that conversation sparks creation.
