

Michelle Rawana, J.D.

Michelle is a U.S. law graduate with experience working at boutique law firms in both Canada and the United States, with a practice focus on probate, wills and estates, and U.S. securities law. She currently serves as Specialist, Legacy Giving & Estates at WWF Canada, where she single - handedly manages the organizations estates and endowment portfolios. In her role, she works closely with executors, lawyers, and professional advisors to administer complex estates and proactively identify and mitigate estate risks to help maximize charitable outcomes.