

The CAGP Mentorship Program 2021/2022

We are excited to announce that a new cycle of the CAGP Greater Vancouver Chapter Mentorship Program will begin in September 2021. Applications are being accepted for Mentors and Learning Partners. The program provides an enriching opportunity for experienced gift planners and professional advisors in the charitable space to exchange valuable professional support and knowledge and build a collaborative community. It also presents an opportunity for those newer to the charitable space, either as gift planners or as professional advisors, to share industry best practices and expand their networks.

So, what can you expect from your CAGP mentorship program experience?

FAQS:

What is Mentorship?

Mentorship is a personal development relationship in which a more experienced or more knowledgeable person helps to guide a less experienced or less knowledgeable person. However, true mentoring is more than just answering occasional questions or providing ad hoc help. It is about an ongoing relationship of learning, dialogue, and challenge. Source: Wikipedia

What are the benefits of participating in the CAGP Mentorship Program?

Mentors: As a mentor, there are various ways you will benefit from the mentorship relationship.

- Allows you to strengthen and broaden your experience in coaching and leadership
- Offers opportunities to gain new insights and bridge the gap between generations and industries
- Creates a lasting impact on the learning partner and the philanthropic field as a whole
- Mutually enhancing professional experience

Learning Partners: As a learning partner, you will benefit by tapping into a wealth of knowledge from skilled and experienced gift planners and professional advisors.

- Create a framework for exploration and growth while learning from a mentor with a proven track record and hands on experience
- Learn how to capitalize on your strengths and develop strategies to address areas of challenge
- Improve your confidence with the support and encouragement of a mentor as you refine your skills and experience
- Mentor relationships are a great way to learn from one another and improve our professional lives

Who can participate in the CAGP Mentorship Program?

CAGP understands that prospective learning partners may be testing the waters in the field of gift planning, so to encourage and enable participation CAGP offers new learning partners the opportunity to sign up for the program without joining CAGP. We welcome charitable gift planners from charities, non-profits as well as lawyers, trust officers, accountants, and financial advisors. Mentors need to be a CAGP member in good standing and we prefer mentors have at least five years of planned giving experience.

How does the Pairing Process Work?

The Mentorship Committee matches learning partners with mentors based on level of experience, professional interests, and expertise.

All mentors are senior in their experience and are actively employed in key gift planning or professional advisory positions.
