

Adam Aptowitzer LL.B.

Adam Aptowitzer LL.B. is a lawyer practicing in the areas of charity and tax law. He is a member of both the bars of Alberta and Ontario and has been speaking and writing on the topic of charity law for several years. He has been published in several publications including the Canadian Taxpayer, Canadian Fundraising & Philanthropy and the Not-for-Profit News, and has been cited as an expert in several national media publications. He has published a widely circulated paper on the regulation of charities in Canada with the C.D. Howe Institute. Adam is also a noted speaker and has presented to the C.D. Howe Institute, the Association of Fundraising Professionals, the Canadian Association of Gift Planners, the Canadian Bar Association and has given expert opinion testimony at a Parliamentary Roundtable. He has also appeared before the Tax Court of Canada and the Federal Court of Appeal. Adam is also an executive member of the Canadian Bar Association's Charity and Not-for-Profit Law section and is the author of the book "Starting and maintaining a charity in Canada".