

Aneil Gokhale

Aneil Gokhale is the Director, Philanthropy at Toronto Foundation where he helps individuals, families, professional advisors, companies and other organizations be more strategic with their philanthropy. Toronto Foundation's Vision is to build a city of informed, engaged philanthropists accelerating meaningful change for all. Aneil's been in the perfect job for 5 years because he is focused on providing opportunities for all to engage in the vision each and every day. Aneil has also worked at United Way Toronto and GE Healthcare. Aneil is the Chair of the Membership and Professional Advisors Committee for the CAGP Greater Toronto Chapter. In his non-work life, Aneil is a husband and father of two awesome children who loves spending quality family time in around his High Park/Swansea neighbourhood. You can find Aneil on twitter at @a_goks often talking about city issues, his favourite sports teams, philanthropy, travel and parenting.