

Brenda Lee-Kennedy CPA, CA, TEP
PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, Partner | Not-for-Profit Sector Services | Family Business Services
Toronto, Ontario

Brenda is a tax partner with PwC's Not-for-Profit Sector Services Group and Family Business Services Planning Group, practicing in the areas of personal, estate and trust and private enterprise advisory and taxation, as well as charities and not-for-profit taxation and governance.

Brenda is a chartered professional accountant (CPA) and chartered accountant (CA) and works in the philanthropic sector providing tax and wealth planning advisory services to high net worth families, private businesses, charities, and other not-for-profit organizations. She is PwC Canada's tax practice leader in the not-for-profit sector space.

She is a member of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Professional Accountants, Institute of Chartered Professional Accountants of Ontario, Canadian Tax Foundation, Society of Estate and Trust Practitioners (STEP), and Canadian Association of Gift Planners (CAGP). As well, she has served as an instructor of the CICA's In-Depth Tax Training Course.

Brenda is a regular speaker at industry conferences, a contributor to industry publications, and in a volunteer capacity, serves as a board director and committee member to a number of not-for-profit organizations and charities.