

DeWayne Osborn

Lawton Partners' General Manager, Chief Compliance Officer and in-house expert on charitable and planned giving, DeWayne is one of Canada's leading authorities on planned giving.

As a Certified Financial Planner and Certified General Accountant with more than a decade of experience serving in senior positions of not-for-profit organizations, DeWayne has become one of Canada's leading authorities on charitable giving. He is a much sought after speaker, consultant and advisor on the complexities and tremendous financial and philanthropic benefits that can be achieved by applying tax-effective strategies for gifting real property, cash, securities, life insurance products, either today or through the will. He has created a unique web based technical resource for advisors and charities that is dedicated to charitable giving – with a focus on planned giving. DeWayne's clients include small to medium charities, as well as financial organizations such as Great West Life/London Life/Canada Life, the Certified General Accountants Association of Canada, as well as large Universities and foundations right across Canada.

DeWayne is currently a Faculty Member of CAGP as well as member of the CAGP National Education Committee as well as Past-Chair of the National Board of Directors. DeWayne received the 2011 Friend of CAGP Manitoba and Friend of CAGP Awards and the 2003 Certified General Accountants Association of Manitoba Sharing Expertise Award.
