

Doug Puffer

Doug is a recognized expert in planned giving, with over 29 years of fundraising success in higher education and environmental conservation, Doug is Director of Personal and Planned Giving at Carleton University and until recently served as Director of Planned Giving for Simon Fraser University in Burnaby, B.C for 9 years. Prior to that, Doug was a Senior Planned Giving Officer at Queen's University and a contributor services representative and biologist with Ducks Unlimited.

He is committed to continuing to learn about philanthropic relationships, and to providing extraordinary support, respect and service excellence for donors and volunteers.

His volunteer service includes: immediate past national board member of the Canadian Association of Gift Planners, current Co-Chair of the Ottawa CAGP Chapter, a mentor with the Greater Vancouver CAGP Roundtable, former President of the Quinte CAGP Chapter. He also served on the Editorial Board for Gift Planning in Canada and has presented at many conferences and recently as guest lecturer with the Master in Philanthropy and Nonprofit Leadership graduate program at Carleton University.