

Grant Monck

---

Grant has over twenty years of experience as a lawyer, gift planner and senior fundraiser with local, provincial, national and international organizations. Since 1995 he has held senior fundraising positions with conservation, education and health organizations. Grant left Ducks Unlimited Canada as their National Director Development in August, 2014 and established his own consulting firm based in Vancouver. He currently provides services to charities, donors and professional advisors in regard to charitable giving.

As a member of CAGP, Grant has held the positions of national Education Chair, national conference program Chair and Chair of the Greater Vancouver Roundtable. He is currently a member of the national Government Relations Committee.