

Jay Stark, CFP

Jay is a certified financial planner and a consultant for the Donor Motivation Program in Saskatchewan. He has been successfully advising people on how to significantly reduce their income and estate taxes for more than 20 years. His counsel and expertise has helped hundreds of families in the Saskatoon area realize their goals of giving back and creating a meaningful legacy. Impacting a number of different communities in a positive way has always been important to Jay. From meeting his family's sponsored child in Nicaragua through Compassion Canada, to being a Kinsmen member and working behind the scenes on the Telemiracle committee.
