

Paul Nazareth

Paul Nazareth is a leader in Canada's philanthropic sector with over 18 years' experience in Planned Giving. Now Vice President, Education & Development at the Canadian Association of Gift Planners, he has most recently been VP at the charity CanadaHelps as they scaled in donations to now over $160M a year.

He has been a philanthropic advisor with Scotia Wealth and spent over a decade with charities like the University of Toronto and the 230 Churches of the Catholic Church of Greater Toronto.

Paul is on the board of several charities, teaches with the postgraduate fundraising program at Georgian College, is Chair of the Advisory Board at the Humber College postgraduate fundraising program, a speaker with the Association of Fundraising Professionals, a national faculty instructor with CAGP and writes on philanthropy for a variety of publications.

In 2016, Paul was named as a "Friend of CAGP" recognizing the top planned giving professionals in Canada.