

Claude Drouin

Claude is a donor-centered fundraising professional with over 20 years of experience in planned giving, annual giving, major gifts, donor relations and sponsorships. Currently working as Manager of Planned Giving at the University of Ottawa, since 2016, Claude is passionate about helping donors fulfill their philanthropic goals and in helping to create a legacy for tomorrow's leaders. Previously, he served as Coordinator and then Director of Philanthropy at the Canadian Museum of History and the Canadian War Museum for 14 years and also worked at the Queensway Carleton Hospital Foundation. Claude is a long-standing member of the Canadian Association of Gift Planners (CAGP), he currently contributes as a member of the CAGP National Education Committee and served as Chair of the CAGP Ottawa Chapter (2008-2011). He was also a member of the board for the AFP Ottawa chapter and was Chair of the AFP Ottawa Philanthropy Awards for 3 years.