David Kravinchuk

David believes philanthropy's power belongs to all – not just the 1%. Working with The Common Good's clients across Canada and internationally, he develops and executes successful strategies for annual giving and legacy marketing programs that build value through meaningful donor relationships and empower donors of modest means to achieve their philanthropic dreams. He is also the co-founder of Western Canada Fundraising Conference, Canada's only multi-award-winning annual conference for professional fundraisers.