

Grant Monck

Grant's fundraising career began as a gift planner in 1995. He has over twenty years of experience as a board member, senior fundraiser and lawyer. Grant has held senior fundraising positions with conservation, education and health organizations across Canada. Grant's experience includes working on annual, capital and endowment campaigns, communications and government relations. Specific expertise in major gift fundraising and gift planning. Working with staff and volunteer teams has been key to his success.

Grant established a private consulting firm in 2014 based in Vancouver providing services to clients from Hong Kong to Toronto in the areas of general charitable giving, gift planning, major gift campaigns, government relations and overall strategic planning.

As a member of CAGP, Grant has held the positions of national Education Chair, national conference program Chair and Chair of the Greater Vancouver Roundtable. Grant is currently Chair of the national Government Relations Committee and teaches the CAGP Gift Planning Fundamentals course. He was named a Friend of CAGP in 2016.