

Krishan Mehta, PhD

Krishan Mehta is the AVP of Engagement at Ryerson University, where he leads alumni relations, special fundraising campaigns, and other strategies to engage different communities in support of the university. Previously, he held a variety of senior fundraising, alumni relations and marketing roles at Seneca College and the University of Toronto. Krishan is also the director of the Fundraising Management Certificate Program at Ryerson and a professor in Carleton University's Philanthropy and Non-Profit Leadership Graduate Program. Krishan has a PhD and his research focuses on the philanthropy of high net worth immigrants in Canada. He serves as a board member of CanadaHelps.org and the TELUS community grants board. In 2020, he was named the Outstanding Fundraiser of the Year by the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) Greater Toronto Chapter, the largest AFP chapter in the world.