

Paul Nazareth

---

As Vice President of Community Engagement with CanadaHelps Paul's team works directly with thousands of Canadians as they support their most beloved causes, 17,000 Canadian charities as they fundraise to change the world and advisors as they facilitate client donations. Paul has been a philanthropic advisor with Scotiabank and spent over a decade in Planned Giving and Major Gift roles with charities large and small. He teaches the national online Planned Giving course with the postgraduate fundraising program at Georgian College, is Chair of the Advisory Committee at the Humber College postgraduate fundraising program, an instructor with the Canadian Association of Gift Planners and has spoken in every Province in Canada last year on digital donations, fundraising skills and planned giving. In 2016 he won our national CAGP "Friend" award as one of the top planned giving professionals in Canada.