

Paul Nazareth

Paul Nazareth is a leader in Canada's philanthropic sector with over 21 years' experience. As Vice President, Education & Development at the Canadian Association of Gift Planners, he was most recently was VP at the charity CanadaHelps where he was part of the GivingTuesday Canada launch team and worked with over 20,000 charities, most of them small shops just like yours. He has been a philanthropic advisor with a national Wealth Management firm, spent over a decade with charities like the University of Toronto and the 230 Churches of the Catholic Church of Greater Toronto.

Paul is on the board of several charities, on the Advisory Council of the Carleton Masters in Nonprofit Leadership program, lead faculty instructor for Advisor Education with Knowledge Bureau as well as tax and advisor communities like Advocis, CPA and Estate Planning Councils. Paul writes on philanthropy for a variety of publications as well as appearing on national radio and television to speak about creating a personal legacy.