Paul Nazareth has worked in Canada’s philanthropic sector for over 25 years. He continues to teach philanthropic tax, financial, estate and gift planning with the Canadian Association of Gift Planners (CAGP) part-time. Paul was previously VP at the charity CanadaHelps, was a philanthropic advisor with a national wealth management firm in a trust company and spent 15 years working with charities from Universities to Churches. Paul is part of the Governing Circle of The Circle on Indigenous Philanthropy, on the board of Word on the Street, Canada’s largest literary festival, and on the editorial committee of The Philanthropist Journal. He serves as faculty for the Master Financial Advisor in Philanthropy (MFA-P) program led by CAGP, Knowledge Bureau and Spire Philanthropy, and is a frequent instructor to both charities and advisors. Paul writes on philanthropy for a variety of publications and regularly appears on national radio and television to speak about finding meaning in generosity.
