

Ryan Palmer, CA, CPA

Ryan Palmer is a seasoned tax advisor with KPMG LLP in Winnipeg, providing tax advice in the areas of mergers and acquisitions, divestitures, compliance, private company succession, and estate planning, as well as all areas of Canadian domestic income tax for all businesses, from some of the very smallest of owner-operated businesses to the largest public and private companies in Canada. Ryan's focus includes corporate tax, personal tax, estates and trusts, and charitable organizations.

Ryan is passionate about his community, and focuses much of his time on serving various boards and committees, including the CPA Manitoba Foundation, CPA Manitoba Tax Committee, and Prairie Theatre Exchange. Ryan is often sought for speaking engagements, having lectured and presented on various topics related to Canadian domestic taxation in for various audiences, including the United Way of Winnipeg, CPA Manitoba, CPA Canada, the University of Manitoba, and the University of Winnipeg. In 2019, Ryan was awarded CPA Manitoba's Early Achievement Award in recognition of his career and community milestones.

Ryan began his career with KPMG LLP in 2006 and has since established a significant client base in various industries, sectors, and geographies. Ryan is a graduate of the University of Manitoba's Asper School of Business, and is a Chartered Accountant and a Chartered Professional Accountant.

Throughout his career, including an 8-month secondment with KPMG's global head office in Amsterdam, Ryan has sought innovative tax solutions for his clients, both in the domestic and international arenas. Ryan focuses on providing value through exercising a pragmatic and holistic approach to family business, tax planning, and business growth.