Food Bank

Director, Major Gifts and Strategic Partnerships

Location: Greater Toronto Area

The Daily Bread Food Bank is an independent, non-profit, charitable organization fighting to end hunger in our communities. A distribution hub, Daily Bread serves people through food banks and meal programs in 130 member agencies across Toronto, and also works towards long-term solutions to hunger by conducting research and running innovative programs to support people with a low income.

As the largest food bank in Canada, it provides food to 120,000 Torontonians each year through nearly 200 food programs run by its 130 member agencies. Daily Bread also publishes an annual research report on hunger and poverty and supports numerous poverty reduction initiatives like the portable housing benefit, the basic income pilot project, and social assistance rate reforms.

Daily Bread is committed to providing barrier-free access to healthy food for adults and children across the GTA. Last year, with the help of 11,529 volunteers, it processed, packed and delivered 10 million pounds of food to member agencies, and with its strategic purchasing plan, it was able to ensure that its agencies had consistent access to nutrient-dense food options.
