

ROYAL COLUMBIAN
Hospital Foundation

Position Title: Development Officer, Leadership and Legacy Giving

DEPARTMENT: Leadership and Legacy Giving, Philanthropy

REPORTS TO: Director, Leadership and Legacy Giving

Joining a team of passionate, collaborative fundraisers supporting one of BC's leading critical care hospitals, the Development Officer, Leadership and Legacy Giving will be focused on securing major and planned gifts to Royal Columbian Hospital Foundation.

This role will cultivate, solicit and steward an established portfolio of 125-150 leadership and planned giving donors and prospects through face-to-face meetings, phone calls, emails, and stewardship opportunities. In addition, the incumbent will proactively identify and qualify new prospects.

The Development Officer, Leadership and Legacy Giving will develop and maintain long-term, trust-based relationships with potential and existing donors that support the donors' vision for current and future philanthropic giving. The development officer will take a donor-centered approach to understanding donor values, intentions, and goals in order to deliver the highest level of service to donors.

ABOUT ROYAL COLUMBIAN HOSPITAL

Royal Columbian provides the highest level of care to the most critically ill and injured from throughout the region and province. We are a provincial referral centre for cardiac care, trauma, neurosciences, high-risk maternity, neonatal intensive care, and mental health. No other hospital in the province provides this level of care, or offers all these services, on one site or in such high volumes.

Right now, Royal Columbian is undergoing a $1.49 billion multi-year, multi-phase redevelopment that will create a world-class critical care hospital. The "crown jewel" of this project is the Jim Pattison Acute Care Tower, scheduled to open in 2025.
