About Us

Over the past seventeen years, PearTree has enabled billions of dollars in accretive, often transformational giving, working alongside charity staff, their lay leaders, donors, and their tax and investment professionals.

Simply put, it's easier to raise funds when the cost of giving is reduced from about fifty cents after tax per dollar donated to less than five cents per dollar donated. Generous taxable donors give more through the PearTree approach. In the tens of thousands of tax returns over the past seventeen years, every PearTree client, without exception, has received the expected tax consequences. There is complete and unwavering buy-in from the government. For more details, please see the four-minute video at <https://peartreecanada.com/philanthropy/>.
